PHARMACY LOOKS TO OPEN SATELLITE OFFICE IN 2013

The Charitable Pharmacy has grown considerably since opening in 2010, now averaging 60 patients per day and 625 different patients per month. The Pharmacy has been approaching capacity at its current location, Livingston United Methodist Church, and in 2012 began looking for a way to partner with a federally qualified health clinic to open a satellite office. Plans are now underway to open a Charitable Pharmacy location in the new Lower Lights Christian Health Center on West Broad Street, in the Franklinton area of Columbus. This office would mainly service Lower Lights patients, but would also allow Charitable Pharmacy patients to receive services at Lower Lights as a primary care center. In addition to medical care, Lower Lights offers mental health, vision, and dentistry services to low-income patients. Uninsured patients pay for services on a sliding scale based on income. Both Lower Lights and the Charitable Pharmacy serve a similar patient demographic, and having a Charitable Pharmacy in this health facility will make Lower Lights a 'one-stop-shop' for health care.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Charitable Pharmacy has a new website! The web address is the same—but the look is completely different! Thanks to hours of donated time from Cardinal Solutions, a local Columbus website design company, our website now has up-to-date information about our services. You can find information on becoming a new patient, how to volunteer and when volunteers are needed, past newsletters and our current brochure, online donation page, and—coming soon—a searchable formulary with medications the pharmacy regularly carries. So, looks us up! We hope to see you soon.
